

I am concerned that the government is once again trying to invade the freedom we have fought for. I pay for satellite radio, so I don't have to be inundated with the garbage commercials and limited play lists that clog "free" radio. Please consider very carefully the decisions you make, and decide on what's right, not what NAB wants you to believe is right.

Thank you,

Scott Dunlop

Loyal Satellite Subscriber